Linda Ladewig Homecoming Queen For Anniversary Year

The 1964 Homecoming celebration at Antioch Community High School will signal the kick-off of events to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the school.

Antioch's Homecoming Queen was selected early this year, so that she and her court could take a greater part in the Homecoming activities. Queen Linda will be crowned at the dance Saturday night.

In addition to the usual Homecoming events, an alumni reception will be held at the High School on Sunday, October 11, starting at 3 p.m. The reception will start with a program featuring entertainment by alumni who entertained their classmates during school years. Ken Smouse and the Palette, Masque & Lyre group will present a skit. Garnet Oddsen is chairman of the program committee.

Reunions of individual classes will be held in separate classrooms after the program. The cafeteria will serve as a focal point for interclass gatherings.

Faculty members of past years have been invited and special tribute will be paid to current faculty members with long years of service.

Trophy cases and bulletin boards will carry displays of photos, etc., of past years. Alumni are asked to send or

Do You Remember?

The Model T Ford driven by a Lake Villa student? The feature that makes this particular car stand out in our memory is the decoration—life size decals of Petty girls! Wow!

The Student Activity Cards—a REAL bargain!

The soap in the boys' shower room—good for removing everything, including the top layer or two of skin. Purchased by the school when the truck hauling it broke down in the vicinity. The boys thought the supply would never run out.

The time a junior boy lost his fake moustache during a tender moment in a class play.

The "hole" off the library that Antioch's budding actors and actresses hopefully called their "green room."

"Pop" and Earl Horton and Mr. Cunningham who served the school so long and so well, as custodians.

The days when there was no bus service and no football, and to go back still further, no Prom at A.C.H.S.

And speaking of Proms, there was a time when the only cost of attending a prom was the clothes you wore (no tax necessary, either) and a couple of gallons of gas (at 17¢ a gal.) for pop's car.

The regular songfests in general assembly. How we enjoyed the old grey-bound folders with the red Indian silhouette, containing the words of so many old favorites. Hans had no trouble in getting full response from the students.

The fine Agriculture program Antioch had. Mr. Kuti's judging teams brought home many a first place award.

The ping pong tables in the back of the old auditorium, shuffleboard courts in the side corridors and dancing in the gym—all for the student lunch hour entertainment.

"Mabel," the goldfish, who graced an English classroom and who NEARLY gave her life to prove high school boys could not be outdone by goldfish swallowing college students.

Women's Auxiliary Of Hospital To Elect Officers

Officers of the newly-formed Women's Auxiliary of Countryside Hospital will be elected at a meeting at the Antioch Savings & Loan community room on Monday, October 13, at 1 p.m.

By-laws of the organization were accepted at the last meeting, with 47 women present. The by-laws have now been approved by the Executive Board of the Hospital.

The Hospital Board, with the help of Gavin Pitt, hired as consultant, is seeking acceptance by the Metropolitan Hospital Planning Board of Greater Chicago. One of the requirements for approval of the Board is a working Women's Auxiliary.

Refreshments will be served after the business of next Monday's meeting is completed.

History Of ACHS

Fifty years have passed since the people of Antioch Township voted to build a High School. In that fifty years, hundreds of students have passed through the changing halls. Seven principals have administered the school's affairs. The school has grown from the first 8-room school to the present, elaborate structure.

W. S. Adams, the first principal, served from 1915 to 1919; L. G. Osborne, 1919-20; L. O. Bright, 1920-30; J. O. Austin, 1930-42; T. R. Birkhead, 1942-50; R. C. Edmondson, 1950-52; and A. L. Dittman, 1952.

Until the High School was built in 1915, high school classes were conducted in two rooms in the Antioch Grade School. Ida Runyard Kufalk, who spent about one-half of her freshman year in the old school in 1914, while the high school was being completed, says that they had two teachers that year, Miss Raymond and Mr. Adams. The high school was not accredited.

The Antioch News of June 3, 1915, carries a story of the joint graduation exercises for eighth grade and high school graduates that year. The program was held at the Opera House.

"The stage," reads the newspaper account, "was tastefully decorated with the purple and gold, the class colors of the high school, graduates that year, with Miss Elsie Hermann, the only girl in the class, giving the salutatory."

"There were twenty-eight graduates," says the Antioch News, "and one of the best features of the occasion was for each of these young people, who came not only from the Antioch school but from the Emmons, Cribb, Oakland, Johnson and Channel Lake districts as well to know that at the opening of the next school year there will be a standard high school course awaiting their entry right here in their own home locality."

The first move to establish a High School District in Antioch is recorded in a copy of the Antioch News of April 22, 1915. A petition was circulated, says the newspaper account, and presented to T. Arthur Simpson, county superintendent of schools, requesting him to call an election for the organization of a High School District for Antioch and the ten districts wholly within the old Township of Antioch.

One hundred signatures were obtained on the petitions in a few hours.

Walter S. Adams, principal of Antioch Grade School, and the first principal of Antioch High School spearheaded the drive for the high school, according to Ida Kufalk, one of the first students to attend the new school.

The notice of election is carried in the Antioch News of May 13, 1915. The election was to be held on May 15, 1915, with the polls opening at 2 p.m. and closing at 8 p.m. The election called for a vote for or against the proposition to establish a Township High School for the benefit of the inhabitants of the territory included in school districts numbered 26, 27, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35 and 36.

The Antioch News of May 20, 1915, relates the approval of the high school by a vote of 102 for and 32 against, 134 votes being cast. The newspaper account says, "One noticeable feature of the election was the failure of the majority of the townspeople to take enough interest in the matter to go to the school house and express their opinion one way or the other, and another was the readiness with which the voters in the rural school districts fell in with the idea, and to them is given the credit of the measure having carried."

A special election was called for May 29 for the purpose of electing a township high school board, consisting of a president and six trustees. The News notes that "Wauconda voted to establish a township high school about a month ago, and with the opening of this and the Antioch school next fall, Lake County students will have the advantage of four standard high schools while heretofore the only credited schools in the county have been at Waukegan and Libertyville."

The legal notice of the coming May 29 election was duly carried in the Antioch News of May 20, 1915. (continued next week)

ABC-TV To Cover Antioch Election Results Nov. 3

Results of voting in Antioch's Precinct 2 will join the national TV coverage on election night, it was revealed at Tuesday night's village board meeting.

The board approved a request from ABC-TV to install a telephone in Precinct 2 headquarters with a direct line to New York for use on election night, November 3. Mayor Cunningham and board members had no further information on the request.

Roger Patzer, representing Applied Engineering, reported that plans to improve Spafford St. had been sent to Springfield for approval. News of the approval of the plans was received Wednesday morning.

Patzer also outlined tentative plans for a new sewer line on Victoria St. He was instructed to prepare an estimate of the cost of the project.

There was discussion of approval of the installation of sewer and water lines installed by the shopping plaza on Orchard St. on the village's 30 foot entrance road into the parking area. Mayor Cunningham reported the estimated cost of blacktopping the west portion of the parking lot, and said that the work would have to be done soon. The matter was turned over to a committee.

A request from John Blackman that the village share the cost of running a larger sewer line to new construction on Anita St. was considered and turned over to the sewer committee and the village engineer for cost estimate. The village engineer has advised installation of a 15 foot sewer. An eight inch sewer would be sufficient for the use of the Blackman property. Blackman's request was that the village pay the difference in cost.

The board approved a motion to purchase a second-hand desk, chair and filing cabinet at a cost of $150.00 for Ellis Story, building commissioner.

Dr. George Jensen asked that the village park be surveyed to establish a definite fence line on the east before installing a fence or planting shrubs. He was instructed to contact the Library board in regard to a survey formerly made of their property and to arrange for a legal survey.

Edgar Simonsen reported that the test well had been completed and samples sent to Springfield for analysis. The bid of Layne Western for drilling the test well was accepted at a special board meeting. The bid was for $240 a foot.

Simonsen reported that the best water was found at a 150 foot depth, the same depth as the present well. The drillers continued to 170 feet, then backed up to the 150 foot depth.

The board approved a motion to have Local Heating convert the oil-burning furnace in the village garage to gas at a cost of $287.00.

Irving Walsh reported on bids for appraisal of village buildings for insurance purposes. American Appraisal bid $900.00, Industrial Appraisal Co., $980.00, the first year and $96.00 a year to keep up a record of new village purchases. There was some discussion by board members as to whether the saving on insurance would be great enough to pay for the appraisal. Mr. Walsh was instructed to ask the representative of the appraisal company to be present at a board meeting and give the board information on the service.

An ordinance was read and approved establishing one-way traffic on St. Peter St., going north, on Elizabeth, moving west and on Henry St., moving south.

Free College Educations

Henry Dyer, who administers college entrance examination board programs, predicts that college education, will be free in the near future, possibly in the 1970's.

The reasons he gives are convincing. With college costs going steadily up, it becomes impossible for more and more worthwhile students to finance their own education. At the same time, a college education becomes more important. Industry and the nation as a whole is in need of more persons with the technical training that can be acquired only in college.

Free education up to the 12th grade has long been accepted as a necessity. Recent years, especially, have shown the high cost to the nation in aid and crime rate among the uneducated and unemployable. It's cheaper to educate them than to support them.

College education used to be a luxury, a finishing touch, not a necessity to earning a good living. That concept has vanished, as a college education became a requisite of more and more jobs.

Now the high cost of college threatens to keep more and more worthwhile students from getting the education they need to be of real value in the economy. Dyer sees increased federal and state aid as the answer to the problem, with the total expenses of the student being assumed by the state, even board and transportation.

Government - financed college educations would certainly help to meet the shortage of doctors, teachers, and men and women with the scientific and technical training so badly needed in industry. The government has for some time been fighting the teacher shortage by aiding college students aiming at a career as a teacher. Why allow real ability in any line to be stifled by the lack of education?

Yes, Geraldine, there is a campaign underway for several county offices in the Nov. 3 election, but it is sometimes hard to uncover anyone who seems to be interested and this would seem to include the Democratic candidates.

Oh, you can hear about this Democratic group and that one having a coffee hour or a tea, and sometimes there will be a word leaked out that there is even a Democratic rally, but there is a feeling of embarrassment about them and the candidates seem to guard against saying anything that would stir up controversy.

It is not unreasonable to suppose that this reticence is dictated at least in part by a reluctance to upset the apparent that seems to be rolling for Circuit Judge Philip Yager, of Lake Bluff.

Judge Yager, of course, is seeking election to a full term on the bench and has enlisted considerable support from Republican ranks in his bid for election.

Many of the Lake County Democrats see in Judge Yager a chance to crack the solid Republican front in the county building, but they apparently suspect that this is possible only if the rest of the local Democratic ticket is not pushed too hard.

The only other Democratic candidate at the county level who seems to be actively soliciting votes is Ezra D'Isa, the Democratic candidate for State's Attorney, who is seeking to unseat Bruno W. Stanczak.

D'Isa has some card-carrying cars, a few posters, and is pointing an accusing finger at Stanczak's record in office, but most of charges are shrouded in secrecy.

The campaign at the state and national levels is a different picture, however, and the Democrats appear to be pushing hard for President Lyndon Johnson and Governor Otto Kerner.

Also the recipient of considerable support from Lake County candidates is Paul Powell, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State and former Speaker of the House in the State legislature.

The Democrats feel that Powell has an excellent chance to outrun his opponent, Elmer Hoffman if Pres. Johnson piles up a big majority against Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican candidate for President.

Actually you hear more around and about concerning the 1966 primary race for sheriff in Lake County than you do about the upcoming race.

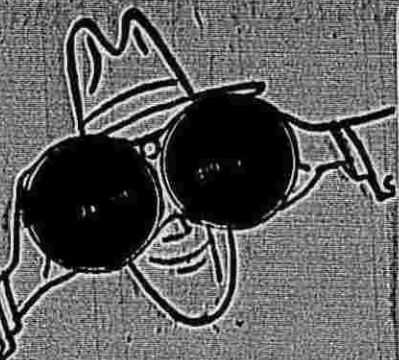

The Sheriff Sweepstakes offers a winter book list of at least six possibilities, but the starting field will probably be reduced to a more manageable figure before campaigning for the law enforcement post gets underway in earnest.

From all reports members of the Lake County Board of Supervisors are getting a little weary of the proposal to reduce operating hours for Lake County taverns by one hour.

Under the goading of Kierzyński, president of the Tavern Owners Assn. of Lake County, pubkeepers throughout the county are besieging their supervisors and assistant supervisors with phone calls and letters protesting the change.

The tavern owners maintain that their fiscal contributions to the county in the form of license fees and taxes should give them surcease from new restrictions on their operations.

Now that the New-York-CBS Yankees have re-asserted their supremacy in the Del Webb League and the St. Louis Cardinals have at long last established their claim to the National League pennant maybe we can get Well, how times change. The neighborhood pool hall, like the bowling alley and the bar, has been invaded and "elevated" to respectability by the gentler sex (women).

In fact, the poolroom is no more, except for those few dingy carry-overs from another day. It is now a billiard hall, or room, or whatever exact word is used to end the phrase.

Coincidental with the opening of the Nu-Cue in Antioch, an example of the plush new entertainment place featuring billiards, the surge in popularity of billiards was thoroughly reviewed in the Wake of the News in the Chicago Tribune. And billiards, it seems, is the coming thing.

The new billiard emporiums are models of respectability. Intoxicating beverages are not served; family participation is urged, and the boom in billiards is on. CHRISTMAS?

Here it is October 8, and already the P. O. is advising us to mail early and avoid the rush. Now, how can they expect us to concentrate on Halloween, Thanksgiving, the November 3 elections, and Armistice Day, and still get our packages in the mail now?

No, it isn't really necessary to rush right out and mail that Christmas package today, although judging from some of our recent experiences with parcel post it might not be a bad idea. However, overseas packages must go by November 10.

Now, if Mr. Goldwater would promise to return the U. S. mail service to its former proud tradition of "the mail must go through", speedy efficiency and delivery, the sanctity of mail receptacles, I do believe he'd garner enough votes to make those polls practically turn upside down.

Your Congressman Reports....

A Special Subcommittee of the House of Representatives was created recently to investigate activities of Federal agencies which may invade the citizen's right of privacy. It is the privilege of this Member of Congress to serve as the ranking minority member of this Subcommittee of which Congressman Cornelius E. Gallagher of New Jersey is the Chairman.

The investigations of the Subcommittee are expected to include practices of wire tapping, telephone monitoring and other forms of "bugging" private conversations.

The development of highly complex and sophisticated electronic devices as well as a clamor for more tools to combat crime have resulted in a proliferation of many novel inventions which would seem to impair the privacy and sanctity of individual conduct and relationships.

Abuses have appeared not only in wire tapping devices but also in the reliance upon lie detectors, or polygraphs.

Some uses of these tools appear under circumstances where previously only a personal interview or questionnaire form was involved. Shocking the sensitivities of a job applicant or other person being interviewed by unrelated personal questions is a type of abuse which explains the reason for the creation of the Special Subcommittee.

It is expected that initially the investigations will be directed toward protecting the individual's privacy with regard to serious politics.

Of course there is still the matter of the World Series and there is the problem of what we are going to do about the Chicago Bears, but these are fairly routine considerations and can be dealt with in a routine manner.

O. K. It's now officially Injun Summer. How do I know? The Chicago Tribune published John T. McCutcheon's famous painting last Sunday, and that's good enough for me.

THE LATEST REPORT: Those breathtaking fashions at the Women's Club Luncheon at the State Park Lodge had matching price tags. Dr. and Mrs. Allen Thain returned Monday from a Merrie Old English vacation.

Judging from the chills emanating from the P.M.A.L. Theatre on Main St., we'll have a few early Ghosts due to their production of "Outward Bound" on Oct. 16, 17, 23 and 24. Would have been a good show for Halloween.

Joe... speaking of Halloween, wonder if the C. of C. didn't repeat that Jack O' Lantern Parade that was such a hit with the youngsters?

NOTES TO YOU: To you who signs Unica Felicitas may I say only caveat emptor! ... Both Dr. Al Bucar and Homer LaPlant had their egos fired a little when a guard to securing information. In addition, it is to be hoped that the investigation will undertake to protect individuals against disclosure or "leaks" of confidential information which has been secured privately and for specific, confidential purposes. Abuses resulting from official "leaks" as in the case of Don Reynolds, the witness who appeared against Bobby Baker, should be prevented in the future if the integrity of our Federal departments is to be maintained.

Various articles and books have been devoted to the problem which our Subcommittee is about to study. It is the hope of this Member that the testimony and other information which the Subcommittee unearths will be both objective and beneficial in order that the paramount interest of the American citizen may be protected and the Constitutional right of privacy may be preserved.

Apparently, the mere creation of the Subcommittee has already produced some results. Just last week Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz announced that the Department of Labor had discontinued the use of telephone recording and other snooping devices.

The critical situation in South Viet-Nam results in frequent questions directed to me as well as to other Members of Congress. It can hardly be suggested that things are going all right there. A much more difficult situation arises when the question is asked, "Well, what would YOU do about it?"

It should be stated again that foreign policy is the function of the Executive Branch and not of the Congress. What the Executive decides, the Congress generally supports and implements. It is important to recognize that this practice applies with respect to Viet-Nam.

In order for the Congress to fulfill its responsibilities, the State Department provides "off-the-record" briefing sessions for all members of the House who desire information from that source. Various committees of the House and Senate, including, of course, the House Foreign Affairs Committee, have conducted studies in depth concerning South Viet-Nam and other troubled areas. It is no secret that some of the well-informed members of the House and Senate disagree sharply with many of the official civilian and military decisions which affect our South Viet-Nam posture.

Following the so-called raids on the Buddhist pagodas and the sensational self-destruction by several Buddhist monks, various members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee visited South Viet-Nam to investigate first-hand the situation there. One of the members who made this trip informed me privately that the alleged Buddhist persecution had been exaggerated out of all proportion. From him and other sources, I have concluded that the State Department and large segments of the American public were misled by unreliable information. However, this misinformation resulted in loss of confidence in the Diem regime and the withdrawal of funds for his security forces. The assassination of President Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, followed shortly, and we have drifted from this strong leadership in South Viet-Nam to the present condition of virtual chaos.

Various members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee recently made a new request to visit South Viet-Nam for the purpose of securing a revised first-hand appraisal of the critical situation there. It has been reported that the State Department and the Pentagon refused this request.

While there are various alternatives proposed for future action in South Viet-Nam, none of them appears to provide the solution which the American public desires and which the free world needs.

There are many apologists for our present South Viet-Nam dilemma and many others who would deny the American people and Members of Congress the right to criticize actions which have brought us to the present brink of Viet-Nam disaster. But in these voices of criticism there remains the hope that a way may be found to avoid even greater disaster than appears today.

Letters to the Editor

To Mrs. Scully,

I still have faith in our Doctors here in Antioch. You didn't try very hard, or else it wasn't an emergency.

Last Wednesday, Sept. 30, my three-year-old picked up a broken bottle outside which cut his finger quite severely. I called the Antioch Clinic (the supper hour 6:10 p.m.) and I was immediately connected with Dr. Bobzain. Within one-half hour he took 6 or 7 stitches to close the cut and we were home again by 7:20 p.m.

I've been reading all your "Letters to the Editor" in the Antioch News and the Waukegan News-Sun. Some of your arguments have good sound meaning, but you're off base about the Doctors in our town.

Mrs. Shirley Gutowski

I am one who doesn't particularly care to make trouble for anyone, but on Oct. 1 my boy was crossing Ida Avenue on his bike and was almost run down by a motorist coming from the Village's so important industrial park. Now I ask, is this area so important to the Village that they can risk the life of a child?

This subject has been brought up before our Chief of Police and our Mayor by a number of the residents. But to this day the fast traffic to and from the factories has continued. The chief of police told me that they are trying to do something about it. Well, he hasn't done much about it at this writing, as the same group of "hot rodders" went by tonight. If the residents of Ida and Bishop can see these cars go by why can't our police?

The same day I went to see the mayor about the traffic problem and was told to "simmer down" because I was "hot," which I feel I had a good reason to be. Maybe if more of the residents were to get hot something would be done.

I am a member of the Antioch Fire Department and I have been told we are allowed 5 mph over the speed limit when we answer a call. So I say to you village of floors, "Why don't you do something about the real speeding problems in this town?"

Now save up to $60 when you buy a new electric dryer

Right now—just as outdoor drying starts to get its worst—Commonwealth Edison and Public Service Company, in cooperation with your appliance dealer, offers you a chance to save up to $60 on any new flameless electric dryer. You'll get the $20 to $40 you normally save when you buy an electric dryer instead of gas—plus a special cash discount of $20 from Commonwealth Edison.

What's more, flameless electric dryer savings don't end with low first cost. There are few moving parts, so electric dryers are more economical to maintain. With no pilot light, they cost nothing when not in use. As a result, an average family can dry the modern electric way for only $1.25 a month.* And because there are no fumes, flames or products of combustion, things keep fresh and new looking longer—you'll save money on your clothes.

See your dealer for the money-saving details now. No down payment. Satisfaction on any flameless electric dryer guaranteed.

SPEAKING TO YOU

By John Burlend

Director of Social Studies,
Rockford East High School

The election of 1964 is as important as any of this century. Nothing less than a revolution is proposed in both domestic and foreign policy. It is important that the voters have a clear idea of the issues of the election.

There is a deep gulf that separates the Goldwater people and the last four administrations on the nature of the struggle with communism. Since 1947 the general strategy employed by successive administrations can be summarized in three words: containment, co-existence, and division. As I understand the Goldwater program he would reverse all three of these policies and substitute a completely different approach. What is the meaning of the three words: how well have they served?

The policy of containment was first publicized in an article in Foreign Affairs Quarterly signed merely "X" but quickly identified as George Kennan, a top-notch authority on Russia. Briefly, the idea was to build sufficient military strength and construct alliances to prevent Communism from conquering new territories and to hold the line until fanatical Communism had burned itself out.

It must be remembered that at the war's end, two factors were operating in favor of Communism; one was the misery and desperation of millions of people caught in the ruin of war; 2nd, the determination of the colonial areas of the world to achieve independence whether or not they were prepared for it. The Communists tried to ride both of these advantages and the amazing thing is that they had so little success. In the view of most competent observers, the American plan of containment was the most effective factor in halting the Communist march.

The second objective of our policy was co-existence. As we entered the nuclear era, it was soon apparent that we and the Russians would either co-exist or co-decease. As both of us built huge and complex military establishments, we found ourselves bound together with the Communists in a balance of terror. A miscalculation or irresponsible action could send hundreds of millions of people to their death. We came very close to nuclear holocaust in October, 1962, since that confrontation both we and the Russians have acted with caution and responsibility.

The third prong in our foreign policy has been to encourage splits in the Communist movement. We were convinced that there were national ambitions and enmities among the Communists that would split and divide them if we played out cards well and had patience. To that end we encouraged and supported the Tito heresy, he could not have survived without our help; we have encouraged the steps of Poland and Roumania away from Moscow; we have promoted the growing bitterness between Russia and China. The Communist world is no longer united; the position of the West has steadily improved; judged by any objective yardstick, the American policy is a success.

The Goldwater crowd is calling for a revolution; they would reverse every major policy. They demand victory over Communism. They demand victory in Viet Nam, victory in Eastern Europe, victory in Cuba. If this were merely an election year gimmick, that would be bad enough. If there were assurances that they would forget these slogans after election, one could shudder but ignore them.

There is every evidence that they mean what they say. These are the people who bitterly assailed Pres. Eisenhower for not sending American troops into Hungary in 1956, which would have set off a real war. These are the people who are prepared to carry the war in Viet Nam to Hanoi or even China. To hear their talk, you would think there is something disgraceful in not having a real war right now.

For nearly twenty years we have hoped that the Communist movement would fall into quarreling factions. It has. The snarling between two great Communist powers is real. Just this summer, Mao suggested to the Japanese

DEATH NOTICES

EUGENE G. CARNEY

Mr. Eugene G. Carney, 44 years old of Delaney Road, Wadsworth, Ill., died Thursday, Oct. 1, 1964 at 4:00 p.m. suddenly of a heart attack while riding a horse and driving cattle near Grayslake. at the time was nearly ripe to force Russia to disgorge her territorial loot of World War II. There has been skirmishing and semi-mobilization along the frontier. Is this the time to apply pressure on all the Communist countries so that they join ranks more in a common defense against us?

Whether you like it or not, you will be voting on a foreign policy this November. One is a policy that has the support of responsible men in both parties; the other would start a new policy of threat and thunder. Think long and carefully when you go to the polls; it is an important decision that we are making.

In St. James Cemetery at Kenosha.

McClory Receives "Watchdog" Award

Congressman Robert McClory (R-12th Dist.) has been singled out for a golden "Watchdog of the Treasury" award by the National Associated Businessmen for consistent votes in the Congress toward economy in government as opposed to increased Federal spending. Congressman McClory is among nine Illinois Members of Congress who earned this significant commendation. The National Associated Businessmen is an organization working toward getting the Federal government out of competition with taxpaying businesses. According to its officers, the organization "has consistently taken a strong position in favor of fiscal responsibility."

In presenting the award to Congressman McClory, Mr. Elton Kile, President of the National Associated Businessmen said: "I congratulate you on the courage you have shown in standing up to oppose those who are blind to the possibility of increased efficiency and reduction in the scale of Federal programs. Your economy voting record is a constructive achievement of which you and your constituents can be justly proud."

The ceremony at which Congressman McClory was honored took place in the Presidential Room of the Congressional Hotel in Washington. "Napoleon said, 'Three hostile newspapers are more to be feared than 1,000 bayonets.'"

This survey was started in 1959, with 200 trained volunteer researchers in Lake County enrolling 2500 men and women over the age of 30. In the past five years 98% of these people have been contacted. Each of these people filled out a detailed questionnaire giving information on their family history, diseases, physical complaints, diet, environmental exposure, occupation, habits and other factors.

This enormous study is made possible only because of the work contributed by American Cancer Society volunteers. Without their assistance it would be prohibitively expensive, Dr. Zannini further states.

Group leaders for the Antioch area are Mrs. C. F. Spiering and Mrs. Roman Vos.

Garnet Odds has the role of Mrs. Clivedon-Banks in the forthcoming P. M. & L. production of "Outward Bound".

Homar LaPlant has a leading role in "Outward Bound" to be presented at the P. M. & L. Theatre Oct. 16, 17 — 23, 24.

PM&L Opens New Season

On October 16, 17, 23 and 24, a mystery ship will sail from P. M. & L. theatre to ports unknown. Curtain goes up at 8:30 p.m. on an evening of laughter and suspense, when Palette, Masque and Lyre presents "Outward Bound."

This P. M. & L. production opens the new winter season and also heads up the second year at PM&L theatre.

The cast of "Outward Bound," again in the tradition of PM&L, brings together some of your past favorites and a sampling of newcomers to the stage.

Homar LaPlant again brings his many talents to the stage, this time in the angelic role of "Scrubby." Scrubby is the steward aboard the mysterious ship. He serves as the entire crew and seems to be all knowing.

Ken Jandula and Joan Tanner as Henry and Ann are aboard under most unusual circumstances. Ken, a talented musician and vocalist is making his first PM&L appearance. Joan is an "old-timer" despite her few years. Joan has played many parts in ACHS productions and patrons will remember Joan as Gloria in "Everybody Loves Opal."

Dan Seyfarth, another veteran, has appeared in a wide variety of roles. As Tom Pryor, a near alcoholic, it is possibly his most demanding role.

Mr. Linley, a stern businessman, is capably portrayed by Rich Irmen. Rich came to us a short time ago and she had three entirely different parts. Rich is a talented singer as displayed this last summer in "Nothing Ever Happens in This Town."

Get your tickets early and see a glimpse of Judgment Day comically depicted by nine believable characters, whom you might know and meet each day. Each has a surprising past which is revealed as their destiny is decided.

Rainbow For Girls Meets October 12

The Antioch Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will meet on Monday, October 12 at 7 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Randy Gordon, Worthy Advisor, will preside. Mrs. Donald Gibbs is Mother Advisor.

Cheryl Pincombe has been elected to receive the degree of the Order and will be initiated on that evening. The members are to dress formal. Mrs. W. Jennrich and her daughter, Karen, will be in charge of the dining room.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL SOON

Ann Bartley, Rt. 3, Antioch, expects to be home from the hospital in a couple of weeks. Mrs. Bartley was seriously injured in an automobile accident last spring. At first it was estimated that she might be hospitalized for a year.

She got her leg braces recently at the hospital, and "it was just like Christmas," she says. The braces mean that she can get around with crutches.

Ann voiced her gratitude again to all the people who have kept in touch with her during her hospitalization. Their messages and cheer, she says, helped a great deal in her recovery.

ANTIOCH AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

By Del Jahneke

Mrs. John L. Horan, president, and Mrs. John W. Horan, Rehabilitation chairman, attended the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary Rehabilitation meeting, held at the Mundelein Legion Home, on Sept. 29. All the 10th District and Unit parties are scheduled for the coming year at this meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Horan stated that Downey Hospital is eager for amateur theatrical productions, bands, choruses, etc., to put on free performances for the benefit of the patients. Any group that wishes to participate, please contact either Mrs. J. W. Horan or Mrs. J. L. Horan, Sr.

Approximately 100 members were present at the 10th District School of Instruction held in the newly painted and decorated Antioch Legion Home on October 1. Mrs. Ed Jahneke gave a talk on publicity, and its valuable aid to an organization. All the other talks on American Legion Auxiliary programs were given by the Department officers, District officers and District chairman.

Mrs. Lester Zitkus was pianist for the evening. Mrs. Clarence Larson, chairman, Mrs. Harold Ellis and Mrs. Floyd Horton will be the hostesses for the Antioch Unit October 9th meeting.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schoenberger recently entertained the Kreutzer family at Lake Shangri-La. This was the second annual reunion for the Kreutzers, who are cousins of Mr. Schoenberger. The guests numbered 71, and they arrived from Orem, Bellewood, Lisle, McHenry, Elmhurst and Chicago.

What's The First Question?

It's likely to be one word... "Insurance"

More important than just having insurance are the questions: "what kind" and "how much."

Have you neglected to change your policy to keep up with changes in your home? Now you can streamline your insurance with a tailor-made "package policy." Call us this week for details.

Red Cross Needs Volunteer Help

Red Cross headquarters in Waukegan have issued a plea for volunteer help. Gray Ladies and Gray Men are badly needed, says Miss Charles Vosburgh, Red Cross Director.

"There is a real need for about 100 more workers to add to the 150 we now have," says Miss Vosburgh.

The volunteer workers are needed to work at four installations in Lake County—the U.S. Navy Hospital at Great Lakes, Downey VA Hospital, Fort Sheridan Dispensary and the Lake County Home at Libertyville.

Gray Men and Ladies visit with the patients, read to them, write letters, play quiet games and assist in recreation.

They receive training to do their jobs by the Red Cross and by the staffs in the installations in a 3-day training period spaced over about a 2-week period.

They may serve one day a week or an afternoon or week-end. Each volunteer buys his own uniform. Services of these volunteer workers mean much to the patients. Anyone interested is asked to call Red Cross House in Waukegan, On 2-4044.

Medicines

Main emphasis this year of the National 4-H Safety program has been safe use of household chemicals and drugs, reports the National 4-H Safety Development Committee.

Throughout the state, 4-H Club members and leaders have alerted families and communities to the dangers that misuse of common household products can cause.

There are at least 250,000 chemicals and drugs for home use that would be harmful if improperly used, they warn. These include everyday items such as cleaning aids, cosmetics, medicines, paints and insecticides.

They point out that in one year more than 1,300 deaths resulted from accidental home poisoning, of which 30 per cent were children under 5 years of age. Another 200,000 persons suffered disabling illnesses.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the 4-H safety program sponsored by General Motors in cooperation with the Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee.

Safety program membership is around one-half million.
 During this time hundreds of clubs have been cited for conducting life-saving community projects, and thousands of boys and girls have been individually recognized for doing an excellent job in promoting safety, the committee reports.

The 4-Her with the best project in the state will be the 1964 safety delegate to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago.
 Medals will be presented to four county champions, while eight members from across the nation will receive $300 college scholarships. Clubs also will be honored for outstanding local safety programs.

Enrollment for the 1965 program begins this fall. Traffic safety will predominate. However, numerous projects will be carried out in the home and on the farm involving other vital areas of safety.

Additional information can be obtained from the county extension office.

ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

TRAVELING BY AIR
 By Molly Bowman,
 Chief Stewardess

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines
 With the summer traveling season approaching, many young mothers soon will be taking baby on his first vacation trip—by air.

Most major airlines maintain extensive facilities for baby's travel comfort and mothers will find that a trip by air with baby can be both simple and pleasant. Babies travel very well by air and since the trips are quick, many of the stresses and problems of long journeys are eliminated.

To take full advantage of an airline's baby facilities, let the reservation clerk know when you buy your tickets, that you will have your baby with you. An infant under two years of age travels for ten percent of the adult fare, unless you want to reserve a seat just for him, at 50 percent of the regular fare.

Baby's traveling basket, diapers, blankets and other necessary items are carried free of charge and are not included in the weight of your baggage. On many flights the airline will supply, without charge, a hanging basket which can be suspended above your seat. These should be reserved when you purchase your tickets.

Food for baby aboard an aircraft also is provided by the airline, although not every brand is stocked. Most aircraft carry albuminous and whole milk, supplies of strained vegetables, fruits and cereals and baby crackers. The stewardess will be glad to have food ready for your baby if you will inform her of baby's feeding schedule.

 Airlines also carry a special "baby box" for your convenience. It contains oil, ointment, powder, baby soap and other essentials. Sterilized water is available on most flights and the gallery is equipped to store formulas under refrigeration and to heat them when needed. It is advisable to prepare your own formula at home and give it to the stewardess on boarding the plane.

When an aircraft takes off or descends, it is quite normal to feel slight pressure in your ears, even on pressurized planes. Your baby may react quite naturally and start to cry. By giving him something to drink, he will swallow automatically and relieve the pressure. It is not advisable to put cotton in baby's ears on a flight.

Airline stewardesses will do everything possible to make your baby's first trip by air comfortable and pleasant.

People seem to come nearest to perfection when they are filling out an application for employment.

McHenry Lawyers Support Carroll

A group of McHenry County attorneys on Tuesday announced the formation of a committee of lawyers in the Second Appellate Court District to assist Judge William M. Carroll of Woodstock in his campaign to be retained as a judge of the appellate court. The committee, headed by William I. Caldwell of Woodstock, is non-partisan and has invited the participation by all lawyers in the 2nd district regardless of party.

The committee pointed out that Judge Carroll has served continuously as a judge of the appellate court for the past 11 years by appointment of the Supreme Court of Illinois. Prior to court consolidation on January 1, 1964, Judge Carroll also served as judge of the Circuit Court of McHenry County while performing his appellate court duties. Recently the Supreme Court appointed him to be a member of the Illinois Court

Commission, which is the tribunal that deals with the removal, suspension and retirement of judges of all Illinois courts.

At the appellate court convention meeting at Rockford of his acceptance Judge Carroll said no question of party loyalty was concerned. He cited the long history of cooperation between the Republibench.

Charmglow Products Beat Path To World's Door

By Howard Shepard

The old adage "build a better mousetrap and the world will beat a path to your door" seems to hold true for outdoor barbecues too. Visual proof is the booming success of the Charmglow Products Company of Antioch and Bristol, Wisconsin.

Walter Koziol, owner, manager and guiding influence behind the firm, is taking full advantage of the trend toward suburban living and the outdoor chef.

Interviewing Walt Koziol is a hard job we found. We did manage to get him to sit still for a few minutes, however, and give us some details on how he went from distributing built-in appliances to manufacturing gas fired barbecues.

It all began in 1957 when Walt had a distributing firm known as the Modern Home Products Company, now owned and operated by Bob Benis and Carl Kosnar.

"At that time we were operating out of my home basement and garage at North Avenue, Antioch," Walt said. "Naturally we were handling a lot of gas appliances and as a result we got acquainted with many of the people in Northern Illinois Gas Company.

"It was just my wife, Ann Marie and I then," Walt reminisced. "I don't know what I would have done without her. She did everything, the book work, took all the phone calls, assembled lamps, and even helped unload trucks on occasion."

The Kozioles have two children, John 14, a student at Antioch High School and Nancy age 4 months. "Since the baby, Ann hasn't been able to spend as much time with us as before but she still helps out when she can." "We had been making appliance displays for them for conventions, shows, etc., and when they came up with an idea for a permanently installed gas yard lamp we took it on right away."

The unit Walt was talking about is an outdoor post mounted lamp. Using gas as a fuel the lamp has both a utility and decorative purpose.

Walt got the idea for the gas-fired outdoor barbecue from the $1.19 steak houses in Chicago. "With the gas companies always scouting around for new gas utilities and the trouble most people have with charcoal, getting it burning, etc., a gas-fired unit was a natural."

By 1960 the firm had outgrown their facilities on North Avenue and moved into a location on Main St., Antioch. Even this didn't last long, as in 1962 Koziol sold his distributing firm, to Bob Benis of Antioch and began concentrating solely on Charmglow.

"We moved across the street to 908 Main st., an address we still maintain, and work began in earnest on producing lamps and barbecues."

Charmglow still wasn't settled, however, as in July of 1963 the company moved into their new quarters in Bristol, Wisconsin.

The building was hardly completed when work started on a 5000 square foot addition and this year they are in the process of adding another 8000 square foot to house their own aluminum foundry.

"When we got this addition finished and the equipment installed we'll have the most modern aluminum foundry in the United States," Walt said. "It will have a capacity of over 3 million pounds of aluminum a year and with the addition of some equipment we could boost that up to 8 million," he added.

"We have always tried to maintain a reputation for quality," Walt went on, "and by doing our own casting we feel we can keep better control of that quality. We also have our own pattern shop," he added.

We were interrupted by phone calls at this point so I took the opportunity to walk around the plant.

My guide was plant superintendent Steve Ryzko. Many residents of Antioch will remember Steve when he was a member of Antioch's police force. The workers around the plant jokingly refer to him as "the cop."

We were looking over the assembly line for the barbecues and I asked Steve, "How do you get that charcoal flavor?"

With a smile Steve answered, "That question is asked more often than any other. I always have to laugh a little," he added, "because charcoal is a flameless, odorless fuel and provides nothing but heat. The so-called charcoal flavor comes from the meat drippings landing in the fire and causing flare-ups. We accomplish the same thing with the gas unit and eliminate the charcoal."

There are two other fellows that have figured greatly in the Charmglow picture, Walt's two brothers, Harry and Ted. Harry is in charge of Lamp production and Harry assumes the responsibility for getting the barbecues out.

Back with Walt again I found that Charmglow also has a research and development program. Just a couple of things they have been working on for the future are an indoor barbecue and a pool and patio area gas heater.

"When the pattern shop and the foundry are completed," Walt said, "We'll have as self-sufficient a factory as you'll find anywhere."

The company sells their units to every state in the Union and Canada, Mexico, and South America. "We sell exclusively through the gas utilities," Walt said.

An addition to the firm last year in the person of Harold E. Jalass has given us

Slate Tests For Coast Guard Cadets

CLEVELAND — The 89th annual competition for entrance to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will commence with the December 5, 1964 administration of the College Entrance Examination Board Tests. These examinations will be given in over 3,000 test centers.

Appointments as Cadet, United States Coast Guard, are made solely on the basis of competitive examination and prospective adaptability to military life. There are no Congressional appointments or geographic quotas.

An applicant must be a high school senior or graduate, who has reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1965. Applicants still in high school must graduate and earn 15 units by June 30, 1965. The units must include three in English, two in Algebra and one in plane geometry. Cub Pack 60 of Grass Lake held its first meeting on Thursday evening, September 24 in the Grass Lake School. The meeting was opened by a Flag ceremony by members of Den 1, Mrs. Edith Ridel, mother. Mr. Earl Beese, committeeman, then spoke to the boys about proper uniform and conduct of a Cub Scout. Mrs. Gwen Morrison, Den 3, and her boys Tommy Morrison and Kurt Groh, presented a Shadow Play of Old McDonald's Farm, which gave everyone a chance to join in singing.

Den 2 under the direction of their den mother, Mrs. Barbara Beese, presented a circus skit consisting of three acts. Act I was a Lion Tamer, Jack Felder, and Lion, Billie Beese and Bradley Partlow, putting on a ferocious "Clyde Beatty" type exhibit, which ended with the mighty lion tamer up on the ladder and the comical looking lion looking up at him puzzled.

Act II, Mo and Joe the juggling clowns, was done by Ricky and Kenny Cerk, and really proved funny when Ricky threw the ball and instead of coming down it landed in the light fixture. There the prestige we needed," Walt added.

"Jalass has 48 years experience in the gas industries," Walt added, "and is a top speaker and a vice president in Sales."

The interview was cut off at this point. They were getting ready to test out a new idea in a different grill on one of the barbecues. Ted had to run out and purchase the steaks. It seems their research and development department operates much more efficiently at lunch time.

Texas Visibility

On a bus crossing the flatland between Corsicana and Waco Texas, a young GI, evidently en route to Fort Sam Houston, was overheard to say plaintively to his fellow rookies: "I don't think I'm going to like it—you can't even go AWOL from a Texas post. They can see you for five days!"

he stood waiting for the law of gravity to function. After all everyone knows what goes up must come down!"

The finale was provided by Curt Johnson, who was dressed as a clown fireman, and after considerable running around to discover the "fire" found it in the audience, which he promptly doused with confetti.

Some relay races, arranged by Mrs. Morrison were fun for parents and boys alike, and then a team of three judges was chosen to choose the three best exhibits on display by the Cubs. First prize was awarded to Curt Johnson for his Farm exhibit, second to Kurt Groh and Tommy Morrison for their Shadow Box Play, and third prize went to Bradley Partlow for his Peep Box on the "Ruins of China," which was really just broken dishes from mother.

Refreshments were sold County Fair style at a booth and lots of homemade cookies and candy for a few cents apiece tempted everyone's appetite. These goodies were donated by the mothers of all the Cubs. Cubmaster

ANOTHER BARBECUE UNIT goes into a box ready for someone's back yard. Owner Walt Koziol said that since they have been producing these units and more and more of their lamps are being installed in back yards rather than the front lawns they were originally intended for.

HARRY KOZIOL, Steve Ryzko and Ted Koziol, (left to right) do a little checking on the contractor. This addition to the Charmglow Products building will house the latest in aluminum foundry equipment when completed.

Sequoit Gridders Ready For Homecoming Game

The Antioch Sequoits failed in their bid to spoil Lake Forest's homecoming celebration Saturday but gave the Scouts three quarters of good hard football. Lake Forest finally out-pointed the Sequoits 25 to 13.

The Sequoits struck pay dirt first when Mike Davis broke through and blocked a Lake Forest punt. Jim Knirsch fell on it on the Scouts' three yard line.

Quarterback Wally Henning sent Paul Lindblad on three consecutive power smashes before Lindblad finally took it over from the one yard line. The point after attempt went wide and the Sequoits led 6-0.

On the first play from scrimmage after receiving the kick-off Frank Barth tossed to John Sorenson for 78 yards and the tying score. The PAT failed and the half ended 6-6.

Barth again connected with Geraghty in the third period, this time for 79 yards and another TD. The PAT gave the Scouts a brief 13 to 6 lead.

Wally Henning connected with Mike Stenberg on their first play from scrimmage and Stenberg went 79 yards for the TD. Stan Revell booted the extra point and the score was knotted at 13 to 13.

It was mostly Lake Forest in the fourth period as they scored twice, once from the one yard line and later from the three.

Antioch had a scoring opportunity in the fourth period when Lindblad broke away from four Lake Forest tacklers and went 50 yards before he was downed on the Scouts' 21-yard line. The Sequoits failed to move the ball after that and were forced to give up possession on downs.

Several players were singled out by Coach Roy Nelson for their performances. "Lindblad did a fine job for us both offensively and on defense," Nelson said.

"Paul Williams did a great job for us at center," Nelson added. "Both Williams and Bill Meyers suffered minor injuries and were out most of the fourth period. It's bound to hurt you when you're missing that strength in the center of the line."

The Sequoits are spending this week preparing for the Grant game Saturday. It will be homecoming for the Sequoits and they will be looking to upset the highly rated Bulldogs.

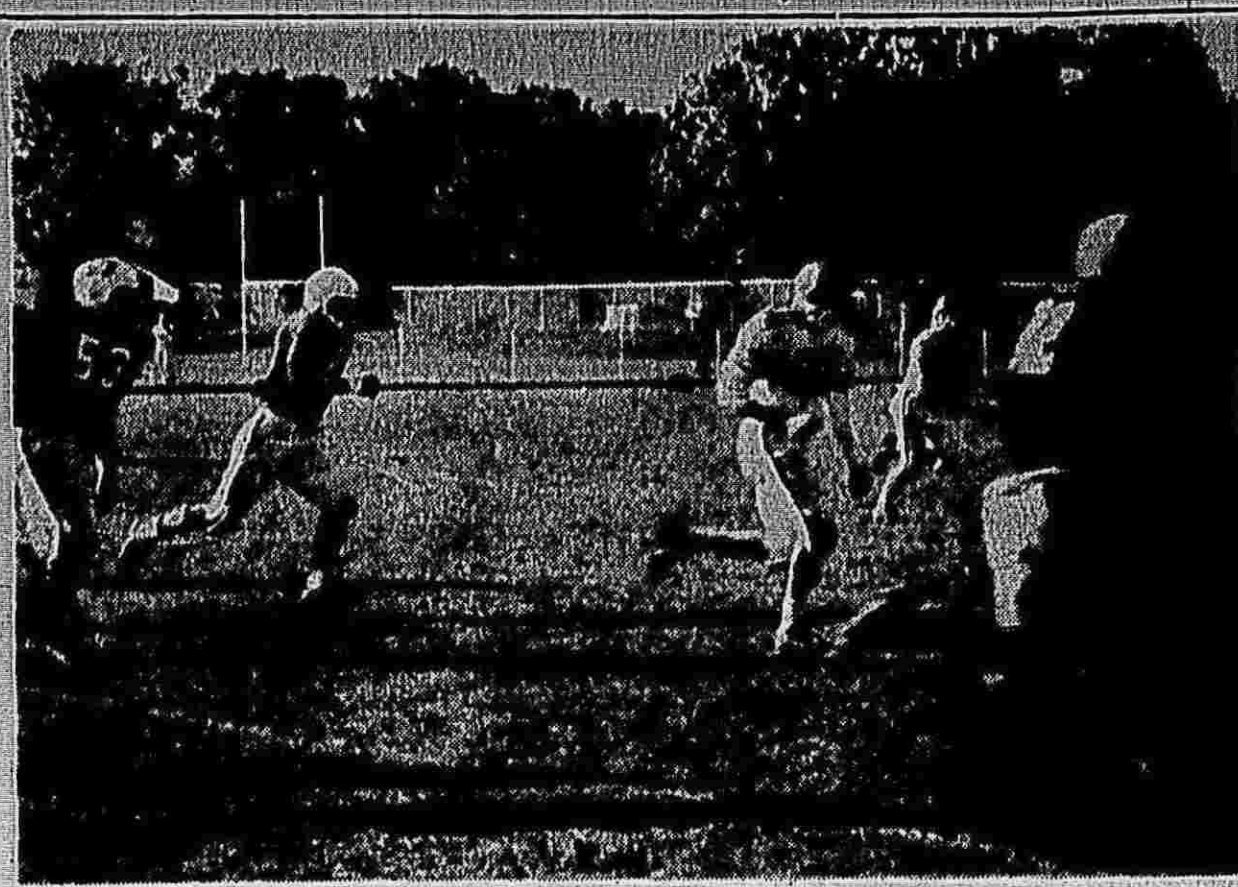

SOPHS LOSE 34-0

Antioch's Sophs suffered a similar fate Saturday as they lost to their hosts 34-0 in the afternoon's curtain raiser. The Sequoits prepped trailed by only 6 points at the start of the final stanza but the Scouts struck four times in the last quarter.

"The boys played a fine defensive game for three quarters," Coach Andy Hauptmann said, "but they let down after the Scouts scored their second TD of the fourth period on a Statue of Liberty play."

"We substituted freely after that score to give some of the other boys more game experience," Hauptmann added.

"If the boys can continue to play the type of football they did for three quarters Saturday, we feel the prospects for the remainder of Paul Lindblad (far right) breaks around end Saturday and picks up yardage against Lake Forest. Later in the game Lindblad broke free and went 50 yards before the Lake Forest defenders managed to bring him down. The Sequoits lost 25 to 13.

Turkey Shoot Draws 550

By Harry Stern

The flocking blackbirds had a crow's-eye view of what is in store for feathered game birds when the hunting season opens, at the October 7 Northern Illinois Conservation Club turkey shoot, held at the club grounds, west of Antioch on Highway 173.

In all, 550 shooters burned up some 3000 shot-gun shells to win themselves 121 turkeys, ducks, rock cornish hens, uncounted hot dogs, hamburgers and cups of steaming coffee. They came from 21 towns and villages in Illinois and Wisconsin.

The day was brisk and windy and made for sporty shooting, with the fair sex taking their share of pot-shots at the clay birds.

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club will stage their big annual turkey shoot on Sunday, November 8, and at this meet, their outstanding gun-fest, expect to play host to over 800 smooth-bore gunners. All the proceeds from these activities are used to further their conservation, tree planting and youth education programs.

"Michigan Madman" To Race At Union

E. J. Potter of Ithica, Michigan who last Sunday raced his 2 wheel Corvette at the Great Lakes Dragway will bring his latest creation to the Union Grove strip this Sunday, Oct. 11.

Potter, with help from the Dodge Division of Chrysler Corp., has installed a 3,000 h.p. Allison Aircraft engine in a 1964 Dart. The car is completely stock appearing from the outside but this is where the stock part ends. The frame, axles, rear end, and most of the other movable parts have been rebuilt or reinforced. The huge engine is mounted under the hood and extends clear through the center of the car. It formerly was used in a World War II P51 Mustang.

Potter, the "Michigan Madman" sits in the rear seat when driving. In test runs the car has exceeded 150 m.p.h. in less than 10 seconds in a 1/4 mile.

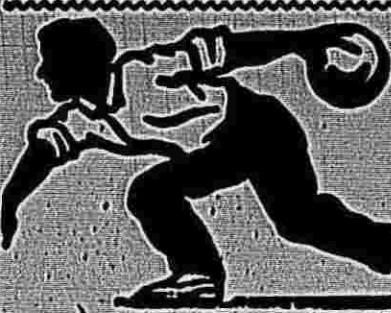

The 3,000 h.p. engine spins the rear wheels much faster than the car can move and clouds of burning rubber pour from the rear end. This fantastic machine will headline another big race program with more than 200 drag racers in competition. Time trials 9 a.m., races 2 p.m. The dragstrip is located 20 miles south of Milwaukee on highway 45 at Union Grove, Wis.

Sequoit Harriers Win; Host Salem Saturday

The Antioch Cross Country topped Grayslake and Salem last Thursday in a triangular meet held at Antioch. The Sequoit harriers easily out-pointed Salem but barely edged the Rams, leading them by only three points, at the meet's end.

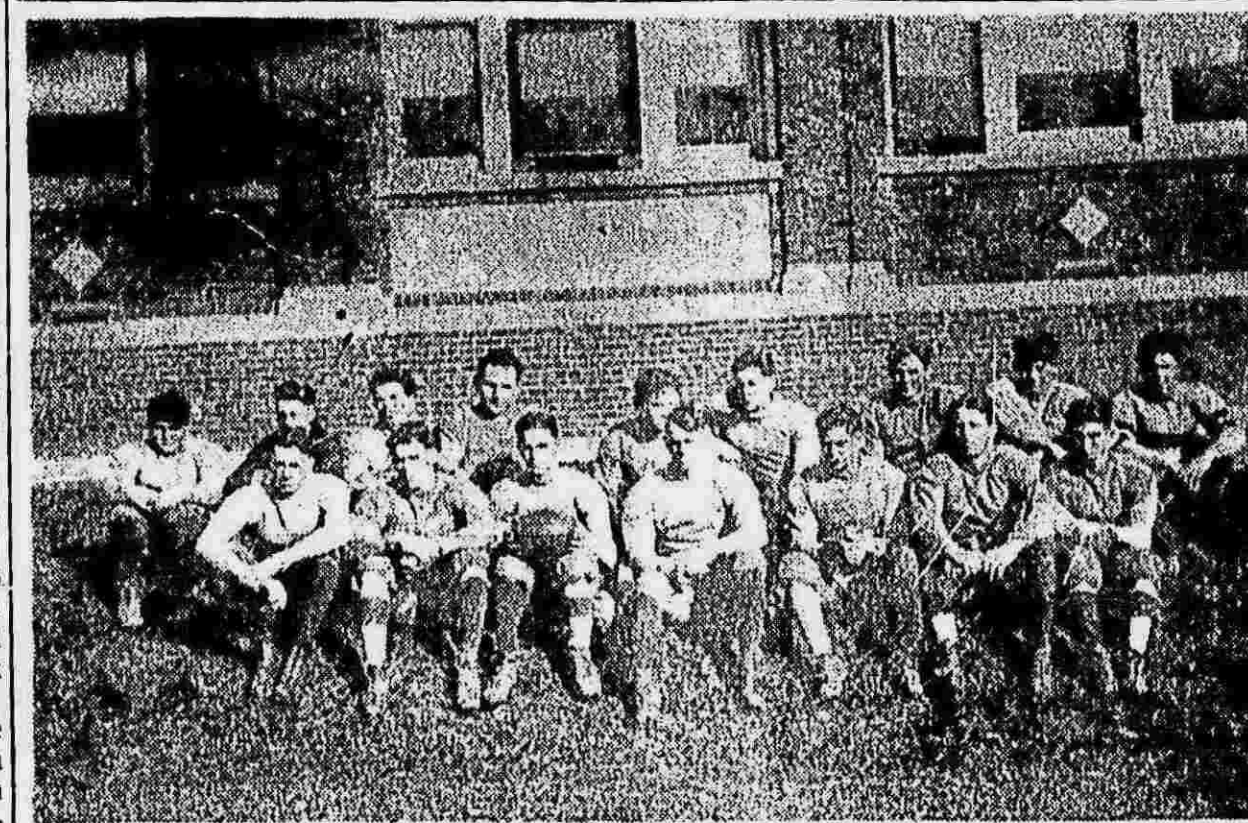

Tom Wojnowiak was the top runner for the Sequoits, touring the two mile course in 11:20. Other point winners for Antioch were Marty Swede, Bill Carrick, Tom Thompson and Del Church.

The Fresh-Sophs were equally successful as they won over both Salem and Grayslake. Gene Kelly, Paul Galati, John Friedman, Tom Doolittle, and John Bjork were the first five Sequoits to finish.

"I am especially pleased with the improvement in Bill Carrick and Del Church," Coach Adrian Mueller said. "The boys are starting to come around now and are conditioning very well."

At the County meet held at the Fox Lake Country Club last Tuesday Antioch finished 11th out of a field of 16 schools. Competing against 112 boys Bill Carrick finished 22nd and Tom Wojnowiak came in 25th.

The Sequoits will meet the Round Lake Panthers in a meet to be held this afternoon at Antioch. Saturday, between the fresh-soph and varsity football games, the Sequoits will host the Salem Falcons as part of the homecoming festivities.

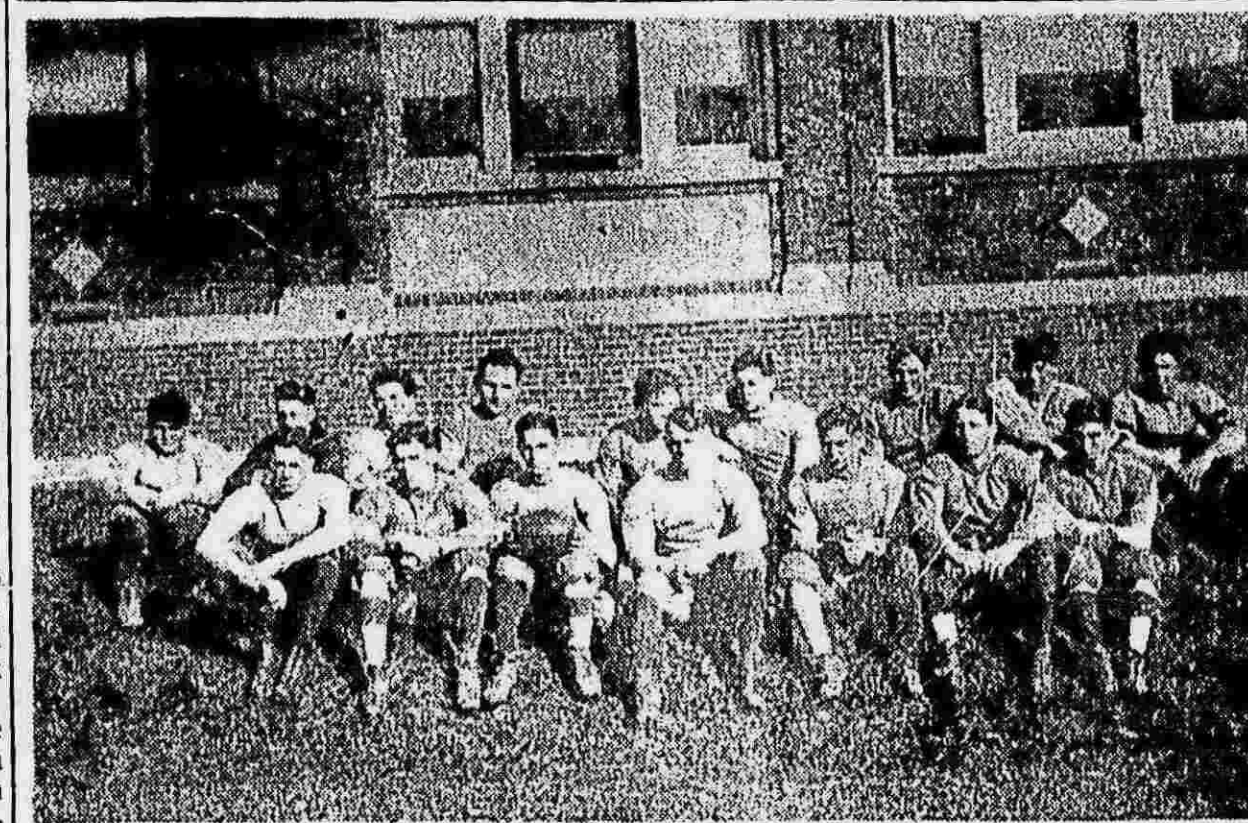

This is Antioch High School's first football team, the team of 1921-22. Principal L. O. Bright was the coach, and the team members had to purchase their own suits. First row, left to right, Wesley Werts, Willard Chinn, Hank Haley, Gordon Ames, Bussio Koulman, Francis Gray and George Koulman. Second row, left to right, Bob Morley, Howard Spafford, Hook, Al Herman, Irving Elms, Al Tiffany, "Moon" Wolff and "Dollie" Stearns.

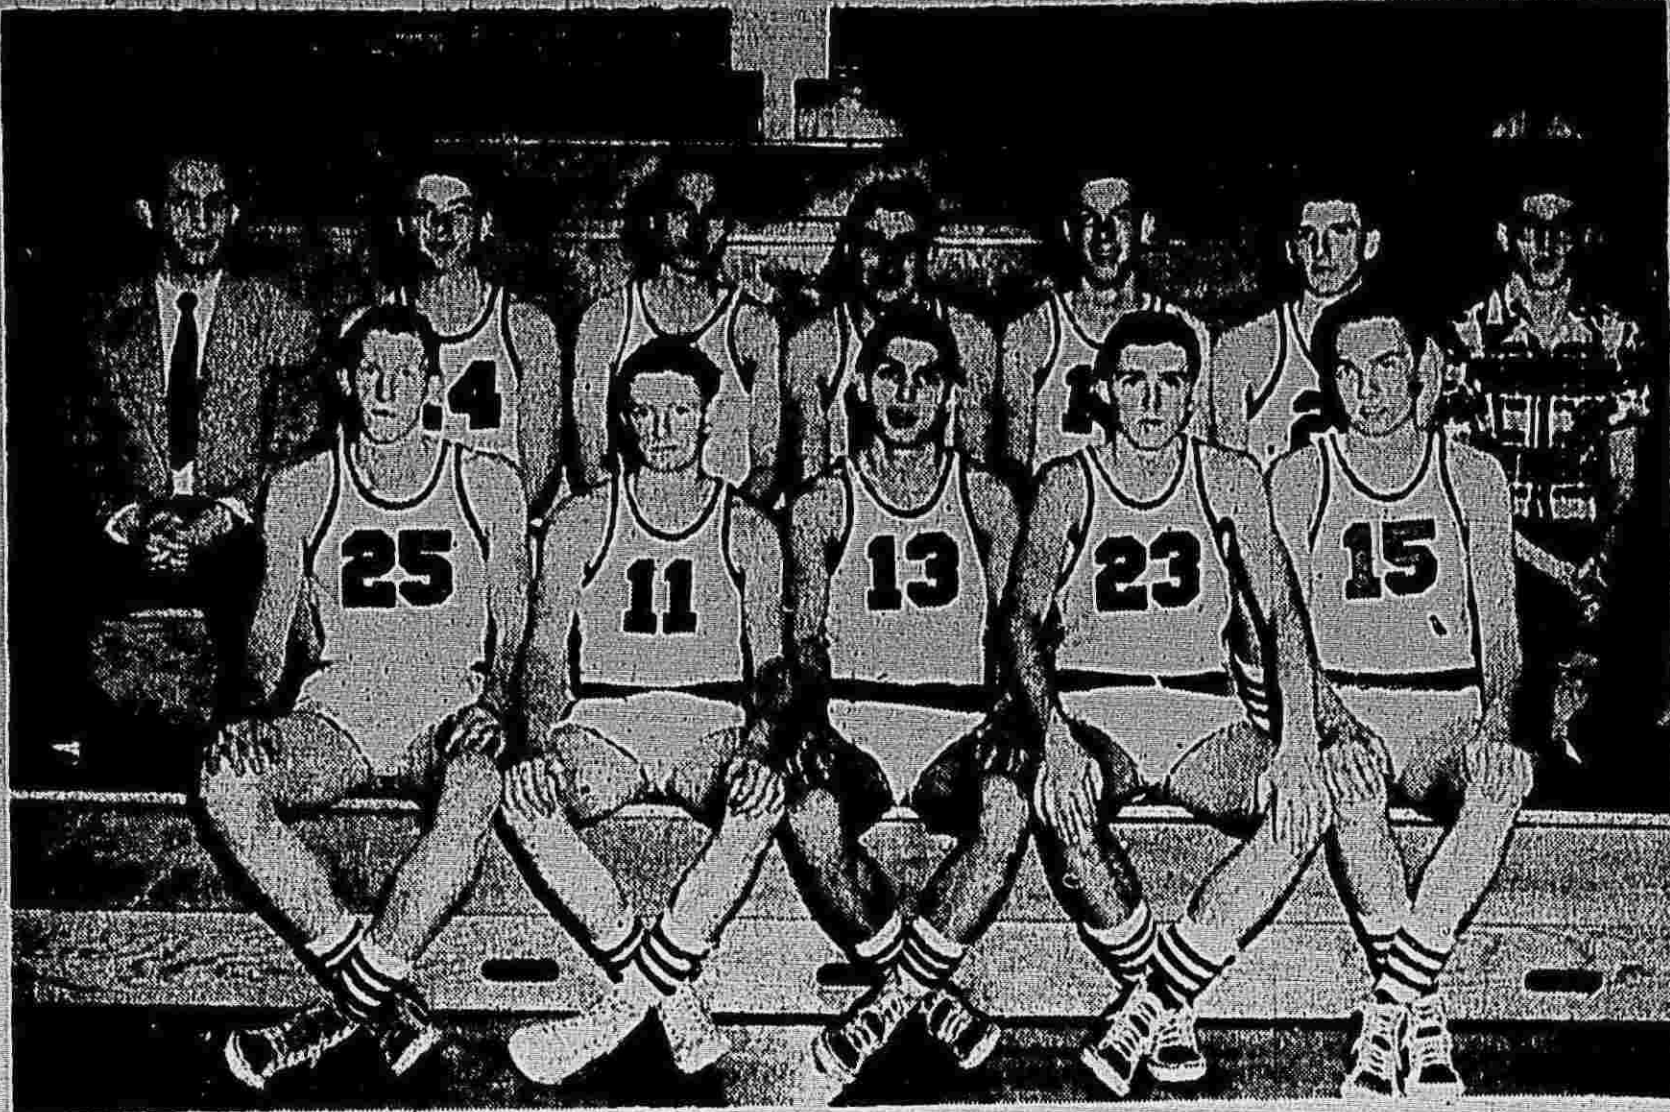

25 Years As United Pilot

Captain Arthur W. Schumann, 60 N. Bridgewood Drive, Antioch, will celebrate his 25th anniversary as a United Air Lines pilot on October 24.

Schumann joined United as a first officer (co-pilot) after training at Oakland, California. He was promoted to the rank of captain in 1942.

Schumann was assigned to flights out of Burbank, Calif., San Francisco and Salt Lake City until 1945, when he transferred to Chicago.

1953 Basketball Team Were Champs

That was a big year in Antioch High School basketball history — 1953. The year a crack Antioch team, unbeaten in conference play, won the Northwest Conference championship. Everyone had high hopes that this might be the team that would make it down state. They did win the first game in the Regional tourney. In an overtime thriller against St. Edwards, they rallied to win 67-62. The next night Elgin put an end to the season for the big 1953 team.

Call Illinois Bell Before You Dig

Accidental cutting of cables by homeowners and contractors is a major headache and endangers public safety, William R. Tatman, Illinois Bell Telephone Company's suburban general plant manager revealed today.

"And the problem is increasing as gardeners and contractors rush their fall yard and excavating projects," Tatman adds. "But the real danger of cable damage is when phone service to hospitals, police and fire departments and other essential agencies is cut off."

"There have been more than 150 Chicago area cables dug up in the first eight months of 1964, knocking out more than 20,000 phones."

"These public inconveniences can be avoided if people call their local telephone repair service," Tatman said. "We'll point out cable locations—at no charge."

public to "call before you dig." Tatman says there are 20 million miles of wire in underground cable, including 7 million miles in Chicago's suburbs.

The campaign—now in its second year—has been effective. Tatman asserted: In the first six months of 1964 alone, 13,337 calls were received.

"In 3,633 of these cases, cable damage definitely was prevented," Tatman noted. "In more than 3,000 other cases, cables were nearby, and damage was a distinct possibility."

Typical examples of phone service interruptions caused by accidental cable dig-ups: Contractor severed a cable in Riverdale, cutting service to an air raid siren and 900 telephone users.

Sewer contractor dug up cable in Cicero, knocking out more than 200 lines, including those of volunteer firemen.

A cable was nicked by a River Grove homeowner erecting a fence post, resulting in disruption of service months later from accumulated moisture.

While digging for a water main, a contractor cut a cable in Skokie cutting off 960 lines including a burglar alarm.

A contractor in Harvey mangled a cable serving two fire lines and a burglar alarm and 150 other telephone users.

Shop At Home

Local merchants point out that each dollar spent shopping in the community benefits the community in assisting in the support of schools, churches and civic projects.

A dollar spent in the shopping center located elsewhere benefits that area, and not the local community.

Dollars spent locally help provide local work opportunities. Local stores are staffed with local men and women who no doubt can recognize you by name if you shop in the store more than once or twice. This helps in processing complaints.

Lake County GOP's Busy In Campaign

The Lake County Republican Federation dinner, with Mrs. Clara Booth Luce delivering a major Republican campaign speech, is set for 7 p.m. Sunday in the main exhibition hall of the Lake County Fairgrounds at Grayslake. A social hour will start at 5 p.m.

General Chairman Marshall B. Schroeder said state GOP leaders, including gubernatorial candidate Charles H. Percy, will attend.

Mrs. Luce, formerly congresswoman from Connecticut and ambassador to Italy during the Eisenhower administration, is campaigning nationally for the Republican ticket. Co-chairman of the National Citizens for Goldwater committee, she made one of the seconding speeches for Sen. Barry M. Goldwater at the Republican national convention.

U. S. Rep. Robert McClory of Lake Bluff will introduce Mrs. Luce.

How to save money on Long Distance calls

Long Distance offers a choice of bargain prices today.

Starting at 6 p.m.

...Long Distance rates are reduced on all calls — "station" and "person" — from 6 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. every day. These same rates apply all day on Sundays, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

Further Savings at 9 p.m.

...Then, every day, rates on "station" calls to many points drop even lower. But, "person" calls cost the same after 9 p.m. as they do after 6 p.m.

Calls Outside Illinois

—After 9 p.m., a "station" call to any point in the U.S. (except Alaska and Hawaii) costs only $1 or less, plus tax, for the first three minutes. Calls under 220 miles already cost less than $1 after 6 p.m., so there's no further saving after 9 p.m.

Calls Within Illinois

—After 9 p.m., a "station" call within Illinois costs 50¢ or less, plus tax, for the first three minutes. Here, there's no further saving on calls under 54 miles. They already cost less than 50¢ after 6 p.m. These rates do not apply to collect, credit card calls or calls charged to a third number.

For any Long Distance information...check your directory, or ask your Long Distance Operator.
